

www.mccartneys.co.uk

Janton Ambitious makes 1100gns at Brecon Fair Day Sale

Brecon market reports an encouraging Fair Day Sale of 290 Welsh registered and non Welsh horses & ponies. For the second year running the sale has been split into sections and it looks very bright for the future this way. The Welsh Mountain ponies sold to a total clearance of 90% with 113 forward. Topping the section A's was lot 46 from Brian Taylor, Afan Carnival Queen making 570gns. The mountain mares were well in demand with breeders and future breeders all keen. It was a good day for Mr D Price Afan Stud as he topped at 315gns with lot 40 Afan Hetti sold to Jane Bugler from Llantrisant he also sold lot 41 Afan Ellemor to the same home for 240gns. The Pre show champion which was judged by Richard Francis Maes-y-Mor stud went to lot 15 Pontgam Suzzie she then sold for 300gns. The Section A foals averaged 110gns with an overall average for the section of 220gns.

The Section C & D's were another section with a lot of interest with not so make offered. Topping the section at 530gns was Lot 139 Gelynos Ginny a flashy eye catching mare.

The Welsh Cob foals were a much improved trade with lot 150 Gwathafarn Serenity coming down at 480gns but top call of the day can from the Janton Stud with a 4 year old chestnut ridden mare which has also been broken to drive. Janton Ambition lot 166 at 1100gns. The section C's cleared at 96% which is up on last year with cobs selling to an average of 93%. The Welsh section were up on entries and up on the average of last year.

The non Welsh section was as always a strong entry and big demand topping the section was a 680gns Standard bred ridden gelding from Conway Price lot 190.

The top price foal went to lot 193 from A Crowley at 580gns. The ridden horses sold to a strong average of £600. A Shetland filly foal from TWE & SE Morgans sold for 500gns.

The overall sale was a great success with a packed ring of buyers all day. It was a one of the biggest crowds seen at a Fair Day sale.